STAFFING

A woman and a young girl are sitting in a grassy field. The woman is on the right, wearing a dark blue top and a watch, and is smiling and looking towards the girl. The girl is on the left, wearing a white top and light-colored pants, and is also smiling and looking towards the woman. They appear to be in a park or a similar outdoor setting with trees in the background.

At PharmServ Staffing, we help pharmacists balance career, family, home life and all the other things you need to manage by finding you the engagements and work environments that fit your lifestyle.

Whether you're looking for the security of a full-time job, the flexibility of part-time work or just want to take on a few PRN assignments, we can help you find what you're looking for. So you're always in control. We just help you make it happen.

The phenomenal demand for pharmacists puts you in control.

Right now, there's a nationwide shortage of pharmacists. And that's creating exceptional opportunities for qualified professionals like you. Here's how PharmServ can help you make the most of your career.

First of all, we focus on the Iowa market and only the Iowa market. So we know it better than anybody else. We have ongoing relationships with top companies, from hospitals to major retail chains, and we know who needs what kind of help and when they need it. As a result, we're able to offer you a wide choice of options. You get to select from an array of PRN and long-term positions. You may accept or decline any job, depending on your specific criteria. What's more, you can always work with other placement services or use your own professional contacts to look for opportunities. It's about you and your career.

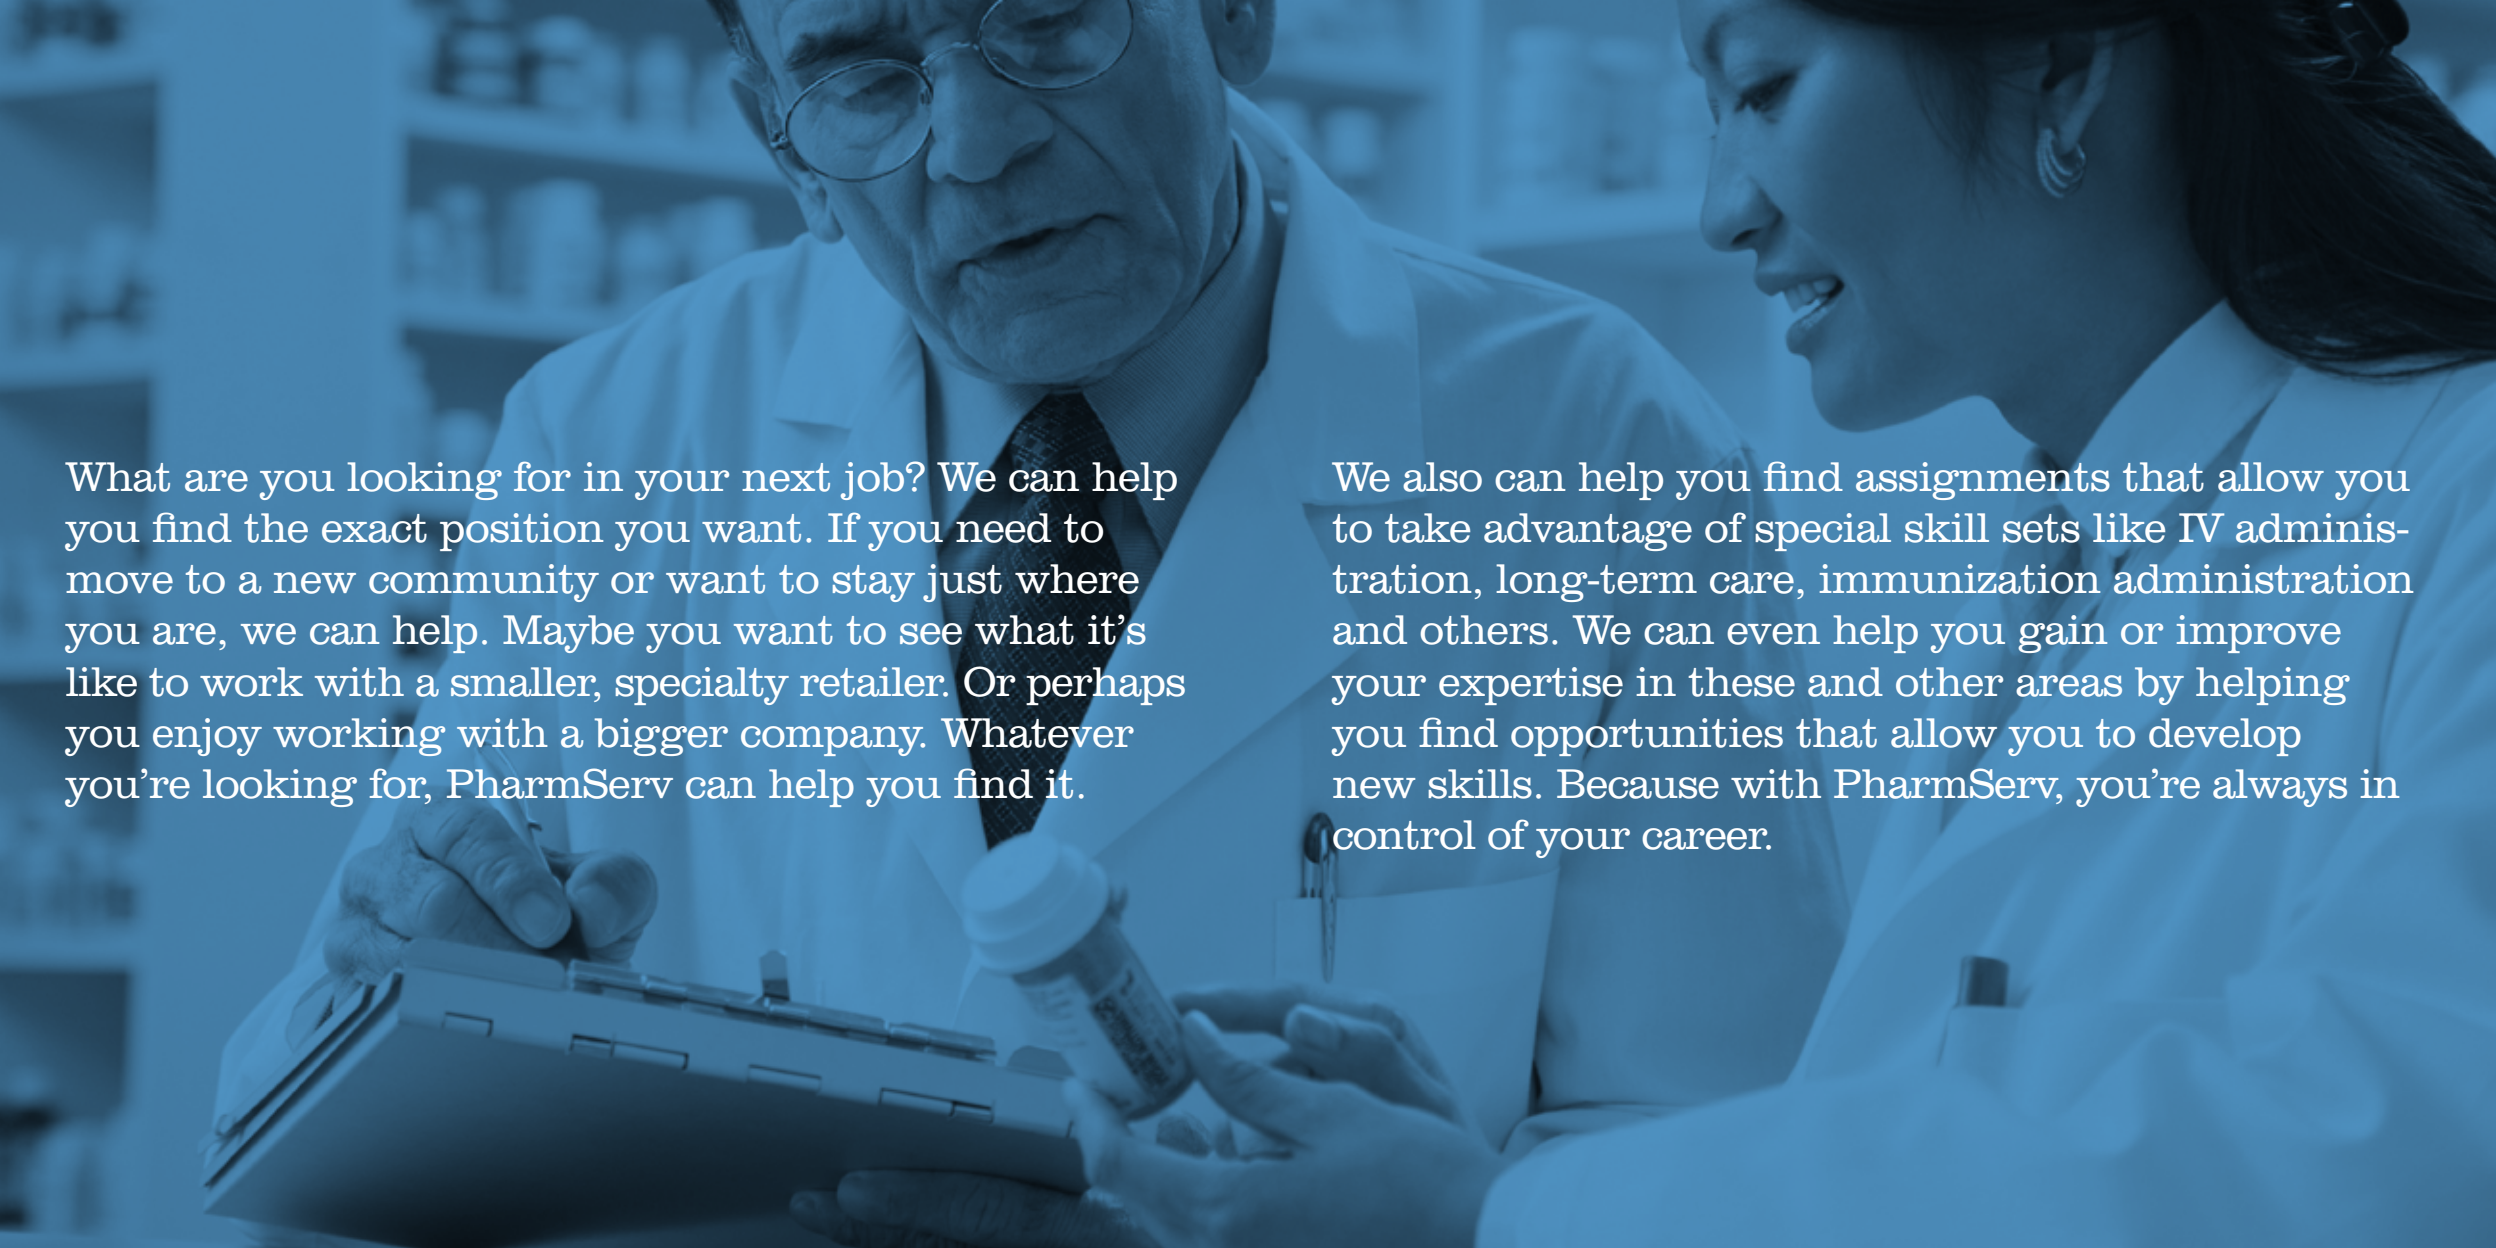

Started by Pharmacists, Run by Pharmacists.

This expertise gives us exceptional insight into how pharmacies work and what pharmacists want. We understand your goals, and we respect the dedication, experience and commitment it takes to succeed in this field. So you can count on us to treat you with the respect you've earned, and to consistently seek your input on how we're doing. And let us know if there are and other ways we can help you advance your career.

The result of this philosophy is an impressive track record of success. We're a leader in placing pharmacists in communities across Iowa and have a proven track record of successful engagements. That's why we're the choice of not only the top pharmacies in the state but many of the best pharmacists as well.

You Are in High Demand.

We all know there's a shortage of pharmacists. This is compounded in rural states like Iowa, offering opportunities for professionals like yourself to explore your career opportunities and supplement your income like never before.

What are you looking for in your next job? We can help you find the exact position you want. If you need to move to a new community or want to stay just where you are, we can help. Maybe you want to see what it's like to work with a smaller, specialty retailer. Or perhaps you enjoy working with a bigger company. Whatever you're looking for, PharmServ can help you find it.

We also can help you find assignments that allow you to take advantage of special skill sets like IV administration, long-term care, immunization administration and others. We can even help you gain or improve your expertise in these and other areas by helping you find opportunities that allow you to develop new skills. Because with PharmServ, you're always in control of your career.

Get the job you want—on your terms.

It's simple. When you enroll with PharmServ, we'll ask you what kind of positions you're interested in. Then, when an assignment that matches your requirements comes in, we'll contact you with all the information you need. You can accept or decline each offer. While you're working, we'll pay you biweekly and withhold your taxes just like any employer. When an assignment is over, you're not under any obligation to us or the facility where you worked. If that company would like to extend your engagement, you may continue with them if you like. Otherwise, you can contact us or visit our website to receive a new assignment.

Joining the PharmServ network puts you in control of your career by giving you access to excellent opportunities with the flexibility you need.
